

Vietnam

Kiesza

Oooh!
This is why I give in
This is why I give in
This is why I give inOooh!
This is why I give in
This is why I give in
This is why I give inI'm under your fire
You got me burning up inside, yeah
You use my desire against me
How can I deny it?You consume me with your love attacks boy
Blow my pride away and smile about it
Should be running but I can't hold back boy
Vietnam in my emotionsIf you give it up to me
I'll give it up to you
'Cause I can't use my loaded heart against you
These feelings that I bleed
They fight only to lose
But if it must be war, I'm falling for youOooh!
This is why I give in
This is why I give in
This is why I give inOooh!
This is why I give in
This is why I give in
This is why I give inYou left me defenseless
Explosions going off inside
Motion for my senses
My conscious caves when we collide, ohYou consume with your love attacks boy
Blow my pride away and smile about it
Should be running but I can't hold back boy
Vietnam in my emotionsIf you give it up to me
I'll give it up to you
'Cause I can't use my loaded heart against you
These feelings that I bleed
They fight only to lose
But if it must be war, I'm falling for youOooh!
This is why I give in
This is why I give in
This is why I give inOooh!
This is why I give in

This is why I give in
This is why I give in You know my weakness always has been you
There's no shell that I can use
Losing control has never felt so good
I surrender me to you If you give it up to me
I'll give it up to you
'Cause I can't use my loaded heart against you
These feelings that I bleed
They fight only to lose
But if it must be war, I'm falling for you Oooh!
This is why I give in
This is why I give in
This is why I give in Oooh!
This is why I give in
This is why I give in
This is why I give in
