The Broken Beautiful (Instrumental)

Ellie Holcomb

I know that I don't bring a lot to the table
Just little pieces of a broken heart
There's days I wonder if You'll still be faithful Hold me together when I fall apart?
Would You remind me now of who You are?That Your love will never change,
that there's healing in your name
That You can take broken things,
and make them beautiful
You took my shame
And You walked out of the grave
So Your love can take broken things and make them beautifulI'm better off when I begin to remember How You have met me in my deepest pain
So give me glimpses now of how You have covered All of my heart ache, oh with all Your grace Remind me now that You can make a wayThat Your love will never change,
that there's healing in your name
That You can take broken things,
and make them beautiful
You took my shame
And You walked out of the grave
So Your love can take broken things and make them beautifulYou say that You'll turn my weeping into dancing Remove my sadness & cover me with joy
You say your scars are the evidence of healing
That You can make the broken beautifulYou make us beautiful, oh oh
You make us beautiful
