Piece by Piece

Allison Forbes

Piece by Piece Allison Forbes

Thereâ€™s a long flight of stairs
That leads me up to where
You held me on our first night alone
But the light has gone dark
Did you love me at the start
Or lie to me so I would take you home

CHORUS
Piece by piece by piece by piece
Iâ€™ll put myself back together piece by piece
Donâ€™t come and save me now
My heartâ€™s dragging on the ground
Iâ€™ll put myself back together piece by piece

Thereâ€™s that old kitchen chair
Where I used to sit and stare
At midnight and wait for your return
I would count all the tears
All the lies in my ears
Watching the walls
And your dinner burn

CHORUS
Bridge
Tonight when itâ€™s dark
Iâ€™ll watch you sleep
Pray to the Lord your soul he will keep Tip toe in the darkness
You wonâ€™t hear a thing
You wonâ€™t hear a thing

Thereâ€™s that old willow tree
Beneath it you will be
No talking back with dirt in your teeth
As I boil up some tea
I swear Iâ€™ll think of thee
May you rest in piece by piece

CHORUS
Piece by piece by piece by piece
Youâ€™ll put yourself back together piece by piece
Nobody can save you now
Your heartâ€™s buried underground
Put yourself back together piece by piece

Chorus

Lyrics Submitted by Stan Heuston

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/