

Disaster in a Halo

Ours

Lately I've been thinking what you said
Time is growing old and I'm getting colder
Hunger's just a pain that won't be fed
I'll be working for the ghost until I'm dead and done, over and done, over Disaster in a halo

Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters

Nothing even matters Somewhere there's a girl with thoughts of him
Makes wishes in a well then fears them caving in on her, around on her Disaster in a halo

Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters

Nothing even matters 'Cause in the well plans will come and plans will go undone

I know, I know

And you can't tell I will come and I will go I know, I know

But why would I? But why would I? Disaster in a halo

Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters

Nothing even matters Nothing even matters

Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
Nothing even matters
