

On My Way Home

Joe Cocker

I'm on my way home
That's where I belong
Now the time has come, it's time we must go
'Cos now the tides have changed, we're moving on I'm on my way home, life must carry on
So after all the pain and what we've been through
To give up now would be, oh, so wrong
Come what may, we're being counted on
It's our day, this is our song (Do you know what's waiting there for you?)
Nothing holds me here
(If nothing's left there to go back to)
Believe me anything is better than what we have now
(Turn around, turn around the hands of time)
Can't be any worse, I've got time to spare (Do you think it's worth all the bother?)
Someone has to do it
(Nothing works out right anyhow)
So all that we can do is try and try, try more everyday
(Turn around, turn around the hands of time)
If there's a will, there'll be a way I'm on my way home
There's no turning back
After all that has been done and has been shed
It's our last chance to keep on track I'm on my way home
Though the road may be long
There's no river we can't cross or mountain we can't climb
Because our faith is much too strong (Do you know what's waiting there for you?)
Lord, I don't know
(Nothing's left there to go back to)
Believe me anything is better than what we have now
(Turn around, turn around the hands of time)
Can't be any worse, I've got time to spare (Do you think it's worth all the bother?)
Someone has to do it
(Nothing works out right anyhow)
So all that we can do is try and try, try more everyday
(Turn around, turn around the hands of time)
If there's a will, there'll be a way (Do you know what's waiting there for you?)
Lord, I don't know
(Nothing's left there to go back to)
Believe me nothing can compare what we've seen time and time again
(Turn around, turn around the hands of time)
We've had thunder, I can stand the rain (Do you think it's worth all the bother?)

Someone has to do it
(Nothing works out right anyhow)
'Cos if the cause is right, it's always worth, all the trouble spent
(Turn around, turn around the hands of time)
Even in battles lost, the good win in the end (Do you think it's worth all the bother?)
Someone has to do it
(Nothing works out right anyhow)
'Cos there's no river too deep, no mountain too high
(Turn around, turn around the hands of time)
There's nothing stopping us, we shall get by
