

Liar!

Sex Pistols

Liar, lie, lie, liar, you liar, lie, lie, lie
Tell me why, tell me why, why d'you have to lie?
Should've realized, should've told the truth
Should've realized, you know what I'll do You're in suspension
You're a liar Now, oh yes, I know and I know
I wanna know why you never look me in the face
Broke a confidence, please your ego
Should've realized, know what I know You're in suspension
You're a liar I know where you go, every body you know
And I know everything that you do or say
So, when you tell lies, I'll always be in your way
I'm nobody's fool, well, I know all 'cause I know
Yes, I know You're in suspension
You're a liar
You're a liar, you're liar
Lie Liar, lie, lie, liar, you liar, lie, lie, lie
I think you're funny, you're funny, ha, ha
I don't need it, don't need your blah, blah
Should've realized I know what you are You're in suspension
You're in suspension
You're in suspension You're a liar, you're a liar
You're a liar, lie, lie
