

Judas

Sacred Sorrow

Stab the ones who love you
Stab the ones who hold you up
While we're here
Tending our wounds
Who'll be there to see you fall
Judas embrace for another kiss
Hold me close just one more time
Judas embrace for another kiss
As you sell me to the night

Lower your head
Fall to your knees
Then close your eyes
Begin to pray

Slither away assassin
Dark grin as you clean your blade
Lower your head
Closing your eyes
Begin to pray

Betrayal lies in the heart of Judas
Betrayal lies in your heart Judas

Safer you would be
At the bottom of the sea
With a millstone
Around your neck
Unable to breathe
At least there
You wouldn't be a tool
Of the enemy
Et tu Brute
My brother, My sister
My betrayer
