Tails I Lose

Neal McCoy

She says her mind is made up
She's fought the feelin's long enough
She can't find love or herself in her heart
Says, "We got together way too young"
An' then there's me here still in love

Watchin' the ties that bind us fallin' apartFirst she asks for freedom an' she says that she's leavin'

I say no 'cause I need her, then down comes the hammer

When I can't take her, I say I'll sign the papers

She cries an' she won't take yes for an answer

How am I supposed to choose

When it's heads she wins, tails I lose, yeahShe bought some little dresses an' got a big tattoo

Says, "I don't understand what she's goin' through"

Maybe middle-age crazy or just tired of us

An' maybe I'm foolish tryin' to make it work

But I made this promise for better or worse

An' I'd do anything to make her happy, if I just knew what it wasFirst she asks for freedom an' she says that she's leavin'

I say no 'cause I need her, then down comes the hammer

When I can't take her, I say I'll sign the papers

She cries an' she won't take yes for an answer

How am I supposed to choose

When it's heads she wins, tails I loseI've worked so hard

(He's worked so hard)

Tried so long

It's like everything I do is wrongFirst she asks for freedom an' she says that she's leavin'

I say no 'cause I need her, then down comes the hammer

When I can't take her, I say I'll sign the papers

She cries an' she won't take yes for an answer

How am I supposed to choose

When it's heads she wins, tails I loseHow am I supposed to choose

When it's heads she wins, tails I loseEither way I lose, oh
