Could've Been

Lauren Christy

Could've been a politician
Tell people what to do
With intellectual vision
Hell, I could lie to you
Could've been the inspiration
For a love song or a prayer
Maybe start a new religion
Would anybody really care
Could've been, should've been
Could've been me somehow
Could've been, should've been
Could've been me
Well, I'm not gonna get caught sittin' about
Waitin' for the world to go round
It's gonna be me, gonna be me
Not should've, it's gonna be me
Somehow, yeah, yeah, somehow
Yeah, yeah
Could've been on television
Just one more talking head
Sell you an apparition
Buy this, and you'll wind up dead
If there's a god above
I shouldn't be so bad
It's open to interpretation
The best time that we never had

Could've been, should've been
Could've been me somehow
Could've been, should've been
Could've been me
Well, I'm not gonna get caught sittin' about
Waitin' for the world to go round
It's gonna be me, gonna be me
Not should've, it's gonna be me
Somehow, yeah, yeah, somehow
Yeah, yeah
You beat yourself up over the things you say
And someone else is losing their life today

Before you walk away
Start givin' it up, livin' it up, 'til you drop
You gotta
Diddle it up, diddle it up, up 'til you
Hey, hey
Could've been, should've been
Could've been me somehow
Could've been, should've been
Could've been me
Well, I'm not gonna get caught sittin' about
Waitin' for the world to go round
It's gonna be me, gonna be me
Not should've, it's gonna be me
Somehow, yeah, yeah, somehow
Yeah, yeah
