

Barefoot Baby

Janis Martin

The cat I love has got the blues 'Cause his feet won't fit in his blue suede shoes
Oh barefoot baby, barefoot baby, he's no shoes
Barefoot baby, barefoot baby, barefoot baby
I love him so and I don't mean maybe
Got no leather for his feet
But my barefoot baby is oh so sweet He can wiggle his hips, wiggle his nose
But the gals go crazy when he wiggles his toes He's a real cool cat with his crew-cut hair
And the cats miaow when his feet are bare Each time we dance he says to me
Kick your shoes off baby let your feet clap free
