

In the Forest

David Torn

Your dark kingdom come Nymphs protect this world
Over the stormwood waits the light is far the rain doesn't stop my solitude is near Nymphs start to sing to me
They whisper to me my name Don't stop, Alice, this symphony!
Don't tell my name nevermore Maybe you leave for this long way
There is a way to a second Hell
