Fandangle

Here comes the pain Enemy, show me what you wanna be
I can handle anything
Even if I can't handle you Readily, either way it better be
Don't you fucking pity me
Get up, get off What the hell am I saying?
I don't know about malevolent
Sure as hell decadent
I want somebody to step up, step off Walls, let me fall
Fuck you all
Get a grip, don't let me slip
'Til I drop the ball Fuck this shit, I'm sick of it
You're going down, this is a war Fuck Who the fuck am I to criticize
Your twisted state of mind
You're leaving me suspect
I'm leaving you grotesque Feels like a burn from which you never learn
Cause and effect, you jealous ass
Press your face against the glass, suffer Fuck this shit, I'm sick of it
You're going down, this is a war I've just begun
It's about that time, gotta get mine
I've just begun
It's about that time, gotta get mine I've just begun
It's about that time, gotta get mine
I've just begun
It's about that time, gotta get mine You can't kill me
'Cause I'm already inside you
You can't kill me
'Cause I'm already inside you You can't kill me
'Cause I'm already inside you
You can't kill me
'Cause I'm already inside you Sic, sic, sic, sic
