

What Do You Do In The Infantry

Glenn Miller

What do you do in the infantry
you march you march you march, what do you do when your pack has got your back as stiff as starch?
This is a mechanized war they say and sing is sure abust, cause all that you see in the infantry is one anone disgust. What do you do in the infantry you hike you hike you hike,
what do you do in the infantry
you lift and rise a bike everyone else can ride a jeep or fly up in the sky but theirs nothing to ride in the infantry your just a tired guy The hard way, the hard way sweat till you get there, the hard way What do they say in the infantry they squawk and squawk and squawk, all upon miles and miles and miles that they have had to walk, they march across the ocean, that's quite a trick to do, but don't forget the air core has done some marching to. What do you do in the ground crew your always fixing planes, never a chance to sleep and dream about beautiful Jena Janes, your patching a hole in the fuselage a-loading the bombers pits, what do you do in the ground crew you fix and fix and fix. What do you do in the air crew when the fight begins to scream. how can you duck with the bombardiers to steady on the beam? how can you dig a foxhole ajunk behind a tree? wouldn't you love to march away just like the infantry. The soft way the soft way, like a crash land brother, the soft way What do your gas is gone and your flying a thunderbolt? you and the silk can say your prayer and land with a awful jolt, you drop in a jungle and wrench your back, your thinking of giving up. but what do you humble crawling back its hup 2 3 4 hup 2 3 4 Laaaaaaa!!!
