Dead Man Walking

The Confession

Push it away heart cold in the land of grey suck it all in I'm watching them cringe damn what a waste the boy's got that prescription taste he's dying away look at 'em fade there has to be another way...the aftermath is devastation writhing leave me medicating the hating the horror that haunts my day if I can get a chance to bursh off this decay who gives a fuck, gimme what I need, another dose...and I stop shaking tonight, pull myself up off the floor kneel down and exorcise prepare for what's in store...I'm resurrecting and I stop shaking tonight pull myself up off the floor kneel down and exorcise...I'm ressurectinglock it away beneath the pain beneath the insane take it all in and I'll take the blame pushing the grave the cancer radiates in her face you ruined my stay so I'll destroy the faith there has to be another wayI'm in the rubble contemplating the pills that thrill killin' not aiding the hating the horror that haunts my day if I could get another chance I'd probably throw it away... who gives a fuck gimme what I need another dose I'll resurrect for all to see and death to those who've forsaken meand I stop shaking tonight pull myself up off the floor kneel down and exorcise prepare for what's in store
kneel down and exorcise...dead man walkin' baby I call 'em how I see 'em killin' time killin' pain baby but instead yer killin' meback away from the pain it's insane and I will throw away all the things that sting so back away it's okay you're a stain and now you'll rot away it's sickening...and I stop shaking tonight pull myself up off the floor
kneel down and exorcise... (x 2)
