

New Pin

Oceansize

In goodness wake, Ill always say I do
That its all for you
And the tricks Id turn would always shine right through
Its all for youLike a stream overflowing and unpredictable
A brand new confidence like a new king
Like a breeze levitating to raise a sunken soul
Until the surface shines like a new pinWhat junkie says is not what junkie do
But its all for you
And the tricks he turns will always shine right through
But its all for youLike a dream synchronizing with the one I miss the most
A concentrated love from a new queen
Like a wave stabilizing, I walk a tighter rope
And my new victim shines like a new pinAnd like a dream synchronizing with the one I miss the most
A concentrated love from a new queen
And I can feel lies within the gospels that Im sold
The tactless sentiments are a new pain
But its all for you, yeah its all for you
Yeah its all for you, it's all for you
