

Reject or Breed

Laibach

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject our words

reject our thoughts

with hate,

disgust

and fear

reject our fame

denounce our name

with your

deceitful sneer

betray our work -

our testament,

extinguish

all its flame

you're only here

because we want you to

play a part in our game

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject

decoding the reality of life and all its rules

we'll penetrate infinity

with ever-shifting tools the universe is our business time is our trusty steed

we are wrapped in mystery and we'll make the universe bleed

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject

reject

and if you don't like our vision and you refuse to plant our seed or if you don't buy our reason and you don't want to join our breed reject our work

reject the name

all our flame

to be imprisoned

within our frame.
