Numb

Amanda Ghost

I didn't notice you
Didn't have a point to view
All the things that mattered then
Only really hit me when I saw that inside you were scaredLying on a bed of nails
Build me up to watch me fail
All the ones that went before
Never really wanted more than you were not willing to giveI'm falling down, can't see the truth
I know the hell that you've been through
I'm falling out of love with you
And I'll find defences, I'll try to care less
Won't someone help me feel numb, numb?Felt the sting of acid rain
Sweet Messiah come again
Sitting on my pedestal
I never really felt at all that I'm the same person as youI'm falling down, can't see the truth
I know the hell that you've been through
I'm walking side by side with you
And I'll find defences, I'll try to care less
Won't someone help me feel numb, numb?I'll find defences, I'll try to care less
Won't someone help me feel numb, numb, numb?
Numb
