Let's Chill

Guy

Sweetheart, I've been tryin' so hard to get over you
Just simply can't
'Cause the love we shared through the years
Meant so much to meAll I'm lookin' for is just a serious relationship
Someone I can hold all my life
Why don't you give me that commitment
Let's settle down, let's chillDon't be afraid of me, I'm the one that is scared
But I promise everything will be alright
Come closer, let me talk to youLet's chill
(Ho ho, baby, hey hey)
Let's chill
(Let's chill, baby)From the first time I saw your face
Girl, I knew I had to have you
I wanted to wrap you with my warm embrace
Visions of your lovely faceAll my love is for you
Whatever you want, I will do
You're the only one I want in my life
For you I'll make that sacrifice, hoLet's chill and let's settle down
That's what I wanna do, just me and you
Let's chill and let's settle down
That's what I wanna do, just me and youI'm so happy to have you here
Standing right by my side
Is it a dream or reality
If it's a fantasy, please don't wake meAll my love is for you
Whatever you want, I will do
You're the only one I want in my life
For you I'll make that sacrifice, so babyLet's chill and let's settle down
That's what I wanna do, just me and you
Let's chill and let's settle down
That's what I wanna do, just me and youCome here, baby
Come lay next to me
Let's forget about the past
And think about the futureLet's get together, baby
Let's stay togetherLet's chill and let's settle down
That's what I wanna do, just me and you
Let's chill and let's settle down
That's what I wanna do, just me and youForever and ever, ever and ever
Ever and ever, always
Forever and ever, ever and ever

Ever and ever, always
