

Baseball Cap

Faithless

Oh, smack, there goes my baseball cap I'm on the floor
I think I took a bruise to my jaw
Jumped me from behind at least three, maybe four
I never see my hat no more

Oh, smash, there goes my baseball cap
It's gone, gone, gone, gone
I can't get it back
Oh, smash, there goes my baseball cap
It's gone, gone, gone, gone
I can't get it back

Fourteen years old and hard to the core
I'm walking home making plans for war
My hands was cut, my uncle says, "What's up?
Let me guess, your clothes are in a mess, you're in distress
Sit down, take five and let me look at your knees

Your still alive son, please take it easy
"Sometimes you have to let the world know you're not bluffing
But enough is enough, don't loose your life over nothing
Scuffling in the street is no way to die
And I don't want to have to meet your Mama's eye
So try and listen hard before you fall into the trap

Of making war over a baseball cap

"Oh, smash, there goes my baseball cap
It's gone, gone, gone, gone
I can't get it back
Oh, smash, there goes my baseball cap
It's gone, gone, gone, gone
I can't get it back

I sat back, had a few uncle [incomprehensible] to drink
I had little cry, my eyes started to blink
'Cause what occurred from his words to me
Sounds absurd, but I had the love in his voice to me
I made choice, it was like snap
What's a cap when I got something real like that?
I can measure it, treasure it and have my leisure

Sit down with those who mean most to me

The baseball cap was a ghost, this real to me
You got steel son my uncle's talking
"Take the champion to walk and keep walking
Drink your drink, let the words sink in Say goodnight to your Ma and think again"
So I took my fourteen years up to bed
Everything he said taking root in my head

I said, All my tears and let my fourteen years [incomprehensible]

Oh, smash, there goes my baseball cap
It's gone, gone, gone, gone

I can't get it back
Oh, smash, there goes my baseball cap
It's gone, gone, gone, gone
I can't get it backOh, smash, there goes my baseball cap
It's gone, gone, gone, gone
I can't get it back
Oh, smash, there goes my baseball cap
It's gone, gone, gone, gone
I can't get it back
