Deep Cuts the Knife

Helix

Lately, all the nights are all the same
Since you said goodbye
I'm all alone, the only voice is my ownDid you hear me? Are you near me?
Did you know that I hurt this bad?
Did you love me? Did you need me?
Whole world just a dream I hadThis memory haunts me foreverBetter run for my life, hide from the light
Dark is the night, deep cuts the knife
No way I'll get away
Memories here to stay, deep cuts the knifeLately, I see your face in everything I do
Sleepless nights I lie in bed just thinkin' of you
I can't pretend that I don't need you back againDid you love me? Did you need me?
Well alright, but what's so wrong?This memory haunts me foreverBetter run for my life, hide from the light
Dark is the night, deep cuts the knife
No way, I'll get away
Memories here to stay, deep cuts the knifeI am your slave, got no defender
You flash the blade
I can't escape, I can't surrenderRun for my life, hide from the light
Dark is the night, deep cuts the knife
No way, I'll get away
Memories here to stayBetter run for my life, hide from the light
Dark is the night, deep cuts the knife
No way, I'll get away
Memories here to stay, deep cuts the knifeDeep cuts, deep cuts the knife
(Deep cuts the knife)
Better run, better run for my life
(Deep cuts the knife)
Oh, deep cuts the knife
(Deep cuts the knife)Oh, memories here to stay
It won't go away
Deep cuts the knifeI am your slave
