

Here I Go Again

Smokey Robinson & The Miracles

Saw you there and your laughter seemed to fill the air
Uh hmm, a scent like perfume from your lovely hair
I said that I do adoreMmh, my heart said to me, don't walk head on into misery
Hey, with your eyes wide open can't you see?
A hurt's in store just like beforeOh ho ho, but here I go again walking into love
Here I go again never thinking of
The danger that might exist
Disregarding all of this just for youI ignore the detour sign
I won't stop until you're mine (until you're mine)
I'm past the point of no returnGirl, you walk by and I said to me, myself and I
Now we've got to give it one more try
I know somehow the time is now, right nowOh whoa, here I go again walking into love
Here I go again walking into loveHere I go, here I go
Here I go, here I go again
