Lyrics And Music By Chad Price I Woke Up To See Somebody Staring At Me Through The Window I Knew It
Was You That's How We First Met I Was Watching You Undress I Winked At You And You Threw A Shoe
Called The Police Honey Please Don't Do This To Me I Wanna Ask You Out For Saturday Night If You Bail
Me Out I Know We Can Work It Out I Picked You Cause I Knew That It Felt Right You Dropped The Charges
Then You Drove Me Home That's When I Knew We Were Alone I Did My Best To Thank You Gave Me Your Name And Number And Said We Have A Date To Pick You Up And Don't Be Late Angeline 264-5783 The Big House On The Corner That Looks Like A Tangerine Great Big Windows Easy To See In I Took My Chance And Moved In I Turned On All My Charm I Put My Arms Around You Explained The Way I Met You
How I Never Meant To Hurt You But I Couldn't Turn Down My First Date Since I Moved To Town Said You
Shouldn't Be Staring At Me Like That We Went Out For A Year One Day Her Smile Turned To Tears Said We Can't Go On I've Met Somebody New The Same Way I Met You Yeah And He Nailed Me With His Charm
Honey Please Don't Do This To Me Stick Around I Think That We Can Work It Out I Still Look In Your Window When I Pass Your House Maybe What We Had Was Never Meant To Last Maybe What We Had Was Never Meant To Last I Still Look In Your Window When I Pass Your House
