

Behind the Smile

Arch Enemy

Sands of time
Running through my fingers
My life slipping away
And I feel nothing
Swallow the tears Eat the pain - It's worth the degradation - Eat the pain Behind the smile I feel nothing
I reach out to touch, but I'm not really there This reflection in the mirror
Can't reality be me
I see no connection
With who I wanted to be
Drink another glass
Swallow these pills At the end of the rainbow
You take the bitter
The bitter with the sweet When love dies
The angels cry
Here I am
Alone... Alone in a crowd
