I'll Never Leave

R. Kelly

Shut up
I don't ever wanna hear you say that again
Baby, I'm not goin' nowhere
Look at me, you understand me?What gave you the silly idea that I'm about to leave?
Girl, who you been listenin' to? They must be crazy
Look back and see our past and all the shit that we've been through I'll be damned if I'm gonna let this bull crap take me away from you
'Cause I've vowed to give my all and girl I'm a man of my word
And on that word I'll stand tall, bein' without you sounds absurdSo dry your weeping eyes
'Cause I'll be here by your side
No need to doubt this guy
I'm in this for the long rideI will never leave, no
You don't have to worry, girl, I'll be right there for you
I will never leave, no
Baby, can't you see that I was born to be with you?
I will never leave, no
God put us together, nothing can't take that away
I will never leave, no
Now until forever, I'll be with you the rest of my daysYou never have to question the love I have for you
Girl, I will put my life on bended knees for you
Ask all my friends they'll tell you, you're all I talk about
Even when I go to sleep you're the only one I dream about
See I'm your picture, girl and baby you are my frame
That's why I know our love will stay the sameSo dry your weeping eyes
Weeping eyes girl I'm by your side
Just trust me, I'm that guy
I'm in it for the long rideI will never leave, no
You don't have to worry, girl, I'll be right there for you
I will never leave, no
Baby, can't you see that I was born to be with you?
I will never leave, no
God put us together, nothing can't take that away
I will never leave, no
Now until forever, I'll be with you the rest of my daysSince the day that doctor took me out of the womb and spanked me
Girl, I was born to be with you and the rest is history
Generations and now I'm all grown up and you carry my seed
Now we have flesh and blood with you I am in love, yeah
For the rest of my life, for the rest of my life

We've been blessed with a love that's rare
And that's why I'm not goin' nowhereI will never leave, no
You don't have to worry, girl, I'll be right there for you
I will never leave, no
Baby, can't you see that I was born to be with you?
I will never leave, no
God put us together, nothing can't take that away
I will never leave, no
Now until forever, I'll be with you the rest of my daysI will never leave, no
You don't have to worry, girl, I'll be right there for you
I will never leave, no
