I Know

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I'm tired of all the lies
I wish, I could run away
If miracles last forever
But forever died yesterdayNow there's nowhere left to goStill you tell me so, I know, I know
Everywhere I go, I know, I know
Still you tell me so, I know, I know
Everywhere I go, I know, I knowAm I still in your heart
It's getting kind of hard to tell
In this nightmare you call heaven
In this heaven that I call hellNow there's nowhere left to goStill you tell me so, I know, I know
Everywhere I go, I know, I know
Still you tell me so, I know, I know
Everywhere I go, I know, I know
