

Sold My Soul To Rock 'N' Roll

Bette Midler

Drive me home silver eagle
Drive me away from last night's news
Empty beds, crowds of people
Oh, come on, white girl, sing the blues
Warm mister, hold me like you love me
Why don't you make me
Feel real good for free?
And if free don't mean for nothin'
Let's just say this one's on me, yeah You know I sold my soul to rock 'n' roll
I bought these devil chains
My baby wants me home. Can't refuse him
Sold my soul to rock 'n' roll
It's time to take that train
The one that goes from heaven
Straight to Houston Whoa, I need a short vacation
Restin' in my baby's arms
But the road goes on
Forever, forever, forever
It keeps on going
But I'm gone, gone, gone You know I sold my soul to rock 'n' roll
I bought these devil chains
My baby wants me home. Can't refuse him
Sold my soul to rock 'n' roll
It's time to take that train
The one that goes from heaven
Straight to Houston Did you like it?
Was it good?
Don't it make you want to cry?
Did you like it?
Oh! Am I good?
Is it worth another try? Sold my soul to rock 'n' roll
It's time to take that train
The one that goes from heaven
Straight to Houston
The one that goes from heaven
Straight to Houston
