

Colder Than My Heart... If You Can Imagine

A Day to Remember

It's Monday morning
And I would kill for a chance to drive
Get so far away from here with you my dear
That I'll never leave your side Nobody knows the troubles I've seen
In a van, on a soapbox for the world to see Miles away, and I wish this didn't mean so much to me
To be a monument for the rest of them
Miles away, and I wish this didn't mean so much to me
To be a monument for the rest of them We're getting older
I've started to fear for my life
Is this the way that it should be?
This whole thing's riding on me It's been a long road so far
With nowhere to turn
There's no looking back from here
No more dwelling on my fears Miles away, and I wish this didn't mean so much to me
To be a monument for the rest of them
Miles away, and I wish this didn't mean so much to me
To be a monument for the rest of them Twenty bucks says you'll remember me
When you see me on your TV screen
It may be the first time
But it won't be the last time Twenty bucks says you'll remember me
When you see me on your TV screen
It may be the first time
But it won't be the last time Twenty bucks says you'll remember me
When you see me on your TV screen
It may be the first time
But it won't be the last time And I'll scream so loud that everyone in this place
Will hear every word I say
'Cause this is my time, this is my time to shine
Let nothing stand in our way And I'll scream so loud that everyone in this place
Will hear every word I say
'Cause this is my time, this is my time to shine
Let nothing stand in our way Twenty bucks says you'll remember me
When you see me on your TV screen
It may be the first time
But it won't be the last time
