Awake My Body

Alexander

Hey mama, eh mama, eh mama, hey
Hey mama, eh mama, eh mama, hey
Body, awake my bodyYou can't turn your cheek when you're falling asleep
And you're cold
Awake my bodyThey took me to the station
Dropped me on my knees
Asked me my vocation
I'll tell you if you pleaseI trained my toes in tapping
Specializing in concrete
A day you won't believe just happened
I heard a voice that came to meIt said, "My body, my toes
My heart, my skin, my nose
My organs, for you to play"Now I believe, believer
Will lead to healer
Yes, now we have all our faith
Come on, take me all the wayHey mama, eh mama, eh mama, hey
Hey mama, eh mama, eh mama, hey
Body, awake my bodyDon't hide my eyes
I wanna see
Don't hide my ears
I wanna hearAnd don't hide my tongue
From anyone
I wanna tell
Heaven and hellI won't hide my heart
It won't break apart
I know they'll be sharing
They'll be sharing all the way
All the wayAwake now, body awake now
Awake now, body awake
Awake now, body awake now, ah
See them caring, see them sharing
All the wayHey mama, eh mama, eh mama, hey
Hey mama, eh mama, eh mama, hey
Body, awake my body
You can't turn your cheek when you're falling asleep
And you're cold, awake my bodyAll the way
