Prince

Deftones

I relate to your kind
Your design
Your devotion to wave
Get your brain on the prize
Then dive
Inside, mindset
Of a killer
With your mind
Out of phase
It's a game that we like
We crave yet nobody wins
Any way you decide
You try but you die
Mindset of a killer
With your gaze
You paint the room
Blood red with tears
Pouring from the stage
And you can't stop now
Covered in black and gold
No one cares no one knows
My gift to the world outside
It's okay, I'm alright
Now open your empty hands
'Cause here comes the fun
Here comes the end
Click, erase the device
Give thanks
Then clear out the room
Blow kisses, wave them goodbye
Goodnight
Mindset of a killer
With your gaze
You paint the room
Blood red with tears
Pour from the stage
And you can't stop now

Covered in black and gold
No one cares, no one knows
My gift to the world outside
It's okay, I'm alright
Now, open your empty hands
'Cause here comes the fun
Here comes the end
