Crystallise (feat. Lawrence Hart)

George FitzGerald

Now at the end I realize
The love we have has crystallized
Around my heart, a clear divide
When all that's left, we crystallizeFalling edges 'round our mind
The love we have has crystallized
A beating bristle deep inside
When all that's left, we crystallizeAround my heart, a clear divide
The love we have has crystallized
And falling edges 'round our mind
When all that's left, we crystallize
Now at the end I realize
The love we have has crystallized
Around my heart, a clear divide
When all that's left, we crystallizeFalling edges 'round our mind
The love we have has crystallized
A beating bristle deep inside
When all that's left, we crystallize
Around my heart, a clear divide
When all that's left, we crystallize
The warm embrace, the sharpest knife
The love we have has crystallized
Now at the end I realize
When all that's left, we crystallize
