Something from Nothing

Fates Warning

Some things burden me
These thoughts cut deep
Sometimes I feel
Sometimes I see, I seeI won't close my eyes
I can't look away
We've chased our dreams
We've had our say, our sayStood here so long
I've forgotten what I was even looking for Nothing changes
It's all the same if nothing changes, changesI thought I never needed
And everything I knew was wrong
I never thought I needed so muchI thought I never needed
And everything I knew was wrong
I never thought I needed moreStanding alone
I see what I was looking for, for so long
It's not where I am
It's everywhere I've been and where I'm goingI thought I never needed
Everything I knew was wrong
I never thought I needed so muchI thought I never needed
Everything I knew was wrong
I never thought I needed moreTake, take, take, take, take from nothing
And take, take, take, take, take from everything
And take, take, take, take, take from nothing
Make it, make it, make it somethingSo it's more, so much more than I need
So much more, so much moreI thought I never needed
Everything I knew was wrong
I never thought I needed so muchI thought I never needed
Everything I knew was wrong
I never thought I needed more
