

I Call It Love

Anastacia

Yeah, oh yeah
He's got me so gone
'Cause I can't stop, won't stop bouncin' off these wall
I'm so crazy in love
Might as well just lock me in and shut the door
'Cause I ain't gon' try to escape his sweet prison
Oh, so what makes you think that I might need rescuing?
Is this how it feels? Am I losing my mind?
'Cause everyone keeps tryin' to save me
I'm head over heels, I can't get enough
And I know people might call it crazy but I call it love
I call it love, oh, oh
Ain't nothin' wrong
I'm just out here on the edge, riskin' the fall
So don't ask me why
It's a fool who thinks that love makes sense at all
'Cause I ain't gon' try to escape his sweet prison
Yeah, so don't even think that I might need rescuing
Is this how it feels? Am I losing my mind?
'Cause everyone keeps tryin' to save me
I'm head over heels, I can't get enough
And I know people might call it crazy but I call it love
I call it love, I call it love, oh oh
Don't need no cure because I'm sure
Ain't nothin' wrong with me
And you can't get this unless you're reckless
'Cause what I got isn't safe
Is this how it feels? Am I losing my mind?
'Cause everyone keeps tryin' to save me
I'm head over heels, I can't get enough
And I know people might call it crazy
Is this how it feels? Am I losing my mind?
'Cause everyone keeps tryin' to save me
I'm head over heels, I can't get enough
And I know people might call it crazy but I call it love
I call it love, I call it love, I call it love
But I call it love
I call it love , I call it love, I call it love
But I call it love, yeah, yeah

I feel crazy, crazy in love
