

Collapsing (feat. Björk & Arn Speed Strid)

Demon Hunter

I, I see the weight of hollow death residing in you
Take now your final breath, exhale the truth
I see the fear of nothing left, dead fragments of youth
You hold it in yourself, I feel it too I mourn your blindness
I die along
And swallow darkness
In misery is where I belong Collapsing in on yourself
I don't know why I try
(I try)
Collapsing in on yourself
I don't know why you deny I, I know the light is burning dim and dying in you
I know the pain that lies within, I feel it too I mourn your blindness
I die along
And swallow darkness
In misery is where I belong Collapsing in on yourself
I don't know why I try
(I try)
Collapsing in on yourself
I don't know why you deny No vow of silence, no emission, no truth Collapsing in on yourself
I don't know why I try
(I try)
Collapsing in on yourself
I don't know why you deny Collapsing in on yourself
I don't know why I try
(I try)
Collapsing in on yourself
I don't know why you deny
