Suddenly

The Sheepdogs

Suddenly I am in front of the lights Everything, I'm feeling Scary and beautiful at the same time And every day, I try just to breathe I want to show the whole world The truth inside of me Suddenly, people know my name Suddenly, everything has changed Suddenly, I feel so alive In the blink of an eye My dreams begin to rain Suddenly time feels like the wind It changes everywhere I go I'm just trying to fit in Now here I stand And I'm still just that girl I'm following my heart In this amazing crazy world

Suddenly, people know my name Suddenly, everything has changed Suddenly, I feel so alive In a blink of an eye Suddenly, I am center stage Suddenly, I am not afraid Suddenly, I believe again In a blink of an eye, it's happening now As my dreams begin to rain I wanna say, 'Love Me For Me', what's inside I'm gon' be 'Positive', not run away 'So Much For You', this is life Suddenly, I am center stage Suddenly, I am not afraid Suddenly, I believe again In the blink of an eye My dreams begin to reign
