Regine Velasquez

Your hair's a mess your voice starts to shake
Sunlight touches you and you start your day
You fix your face and you smile for your first time
And youre wondering what today would be like
And if the world brings you down
Just remember love can turn it all around
So dont you worry about today?
Love will hold you and make you smileYoure not sure what to expect anymore
Days could be cold nights could be rough
I didnt want to be like this for long
Youll be dancing again even if it starts to rain and pour
And if the world brings you down
Just remember that love can turn it all around
So dont you worry about today?
In the end youll dancing againSmile for awhile
Turn your world around
Love is here to take your feet off the ground
Smile you pretty face
The world cant stop you now
Oh in the end youll dancing againStorms will come and rain will pour
You can cry for a while
And can be mad at it all
When its all done
Ill be here for you
Love will take your brokenness
And make it all goodSmile for awhile
Turn your world around
Love is here to take your feet off the ground
Smile you pretty pretty face
The world cant stop you now
Oh in the end youll dancing againSmile for awhile
Turn your world around
Love is here to take your feet off the ground
Smile you pretty face
The world cant stop you now
Oh in the end youll dancing againSmile my friend
You pretty pretty face
Smile
