

No More (feat. Aneym)

Masoud

Paper-thin walls between us I have silenced every sound you were my everything watch me when I come undone
No more
 I can't take it no more
 we won't get any better
 hold on
 this is going all wrong
 we won't get any further
any further any better
You promised me the stars you promised me the moon the world at my feet
I looked up to you
No more
 hold on
No more
 hold on
 we won't get any further.
