Day and Night

Justin Townes Earle

[Verse 1]
My heart might be broken
â€˜Least these days I got me a good woman
Standing in the kitchen where the sun comes through the curtains
Wondering what this dayâ€™s gonna bring me
Yesterday I felt so much more than I feel now
Standing in the window with my heart bleeding out
They say the world keeps turning, ah but still I have my doubts
Because I donâ€™t know what to believe

[Chorus]
And but day and night, change and uncertainty

[Verse 2]
What can I say, what will I have to show?
Iâ€™ll be remembered for the love I made or everything I stole
Now the sun is going down and Iâ€™ll be damned if it donâ€™t look like snow
But the heavens on me hold no guarantee

[Chorus]
But day and night, change and uncertainty

[Verse 3]
Have to hold my arms length
Gathering things I find down around my feet
Once my back was strong
Now Iâ€™m on my knees
My pockets are filled
With broken and worthless things
So no more words, nah thereâ€™s nothing left to say
Iâ€™ve learned through love and I canâ€™t live with the pain
But I feel a little closer each time she calls my name
I know sheâ€™s gonna help carry me

[Chorus]
Through day and night, change and uncertainty
Between day and night, change and uncertainty
