

Winning the Hearts and Minds

Good Riddance

when might makes right you want to bet the u.s.a. is now a terrorist threat free elections another casualty in the covert war on freedom and democracy spray paint (blood stained) walls fading light the death squads are coming to your town tonight m-16 to your head lie through your teeth or you might end up dead those stubborn peasants remain opposed to the western puppet that we've imposed not to worry they'll see it our way the c.i.a. trained death squads will crush the coup within a day hahahahaha laugh it away you're making friends with the u.s.a. a clear conscience when the price is right after all who needs human rights? police state now you rule by fear to stabilize this hemisphere for what?
