

Waiting

Maren Ord

I'm sitting here and I'm waiting patiently
For the clock to turn, it's not all that fast today
So, I'm on my own but I know I'm not alone
I'll be witnessing a happy ending I'm sitting here in silence, I'm waiting here patiently
And I'm wondering if you're waiting too
I'm sitting here alone now and I'm waiting here on my own
I'm wondering if you're waiting for me too I'm watching now and I'm seeing others as they pass me by
It's not a pretty sight but it will be someday
And it's not that I, it's not that I'm afraid of losing you
I'm afraid of me and what my choices might do, do, do I'm sitting here in silence, I'm waiting here patiently
And I'm wondering if you're waiting too
I'm sitting here alone now and I'm waiting here on my own
I'm wondering if you're waiting for me too All the time I seem to wonder, how all this is gonna end
Will you stay with me forever?
And tell me that you'll never go away I'm sitting here in silence, I'm waiting here patiently
And I'm wondering if you're waiting too
I'm sitting here alone now and I'm waiting here on my own
I'm wondering if you're waiting for me I'm sitting here in silence, I'm waiting here patiently
And I'm wondering if you're waiting too
I'm sitting here alone now and I'm waiting here on my own
I'm wondering if you're waiting for me too
