

Class President

Young Chosen

Um, settle down, settle down. as you know we'll be voting shortly for a new class president.
We have our two candidates here Lucy Ferraro and Young Chosen, uh they have both prepared speeches on why the should be class president.
So Young Chosen can you please come up to the podium and start off the debate.
Thank you very much(Young Chosen)
Oh no mam thank you.
Well as she said i go by the name of Young Chosen Bottom line i wanna bring some change around here
So ive got a couple of notes to be had so i hope you get it by the end of this
Yeah
Come around and listen up I got somethin to say I know I'm lookin kinda crazy but i aint come to play Imma start the introduction how it will lead to the discussion bout the person im trustin and the reason i be bustin this is a story all about how my life got twist turned upside down i was lost in the dark every day was a drag and thats when he brought me to the school of swag my name is young chosen and im from the west i aint tryin to act like my city the best but it made me who i am and imma rep it well as i bust the jam Im a leader at the school candidate i stand on the debate some people can hate
But my mandate is coming straight from the great So sit back and let me demonstrate
I dont need a hall pass, put em on blast, till my last, im gonna smash
My campaign is to show you the relevance, Im young Chosen running for class president
A president what, a president aye, a president what, a president aye, a president what, a president aye
So can you please come vote for me
I dont need a hall pass, put em on blast, till my last, im gonna smash
My campaign is to show you the relevance, Im young Chosen running for class president
A president what, a president aye, a president what, a president aye (all right), a president what, a president aye
SO can you please come vote for me
Ok let me get serious real quick
