

Hibernation Day

Jars of Clay

I don't want to get out of bed,
You don't want to go out in the snow,
We don't have to do the things Eskimos do,
Let's have a hibernation day, me and you. The snow is climbing up the door, (so much higher than before)
The weatherman is sure there will be more, (I don't want to go out in the snow)
These blankets make a cozy little cave just for two,
Let's have a hibernation day. I love the snap of winter air and the snowflakes on my face,
How the snow drifts make the cars disappear without a trace, I'll take a day dressed in pyjamas, in a room without a view, if I can spend the day curled up next to you. Next to
you. (next to you)
