

Princess

Say Anything

Have you ever even loved?

Could you look a fascist in the eye and jerk him off in plain sight, so swollen and confused, and get pissy about your views until you're cokehead-loquacious and dizzily confused.

You've got a chip up your ass and upon your shoulder too.

Would you spit in Little Lucy's face because she watches the movie Frozen and she wants to be a princess even though Disney employs nearly genocidal business practices?

If the answer is yes, I tell you, you're dead to me.

Pop a squat over John Lennon's grave.

Vilified misogynist Guantanamo Bay.

Have you ever parsed the meaning of "a wage slave"?

Declaring war on ideas while they chip away at twenty-hour workday Frito-Lay daze.

Never tasting the luxury of light rays.

I want the government dead as much as the next poet.

Is the skin-on-skin too much?

Have you loved?

Restless union caught between two nymphs inside a second dream.

Jungian referenced therapy baptized by a Big Gulp.
