

Under A Very Black Sky

Sick Puppies

I had a dream
You had a weapon
I couldn't see it in the dark of the night
It is easy to hide under a very black sky
Over the moon just beyond sudden
I watched in vain as the missiles took flight
We lost our lives under a very black sky

Under a black sky

Colors explode under your microscope but just through my eyes it is all black and white
I lost my mind under a very black sky
We live our lives mostly pretending
You have a secret, you'll never know mine
I'll wear my disguise under a very black sky

Its easy to love you, easy as hell
When you're anyone, anyone else
It is so hard to fake it, I know you can tell
If you're anyone, anyone else

Under a black sky

At first you believe, and then you start lying Swallowing pain likes its shredded up glass
I'm bleeding inside under a very black sky
Disappointment is cruel, but hope can be crueler
I have felt them both until I thought I could die
Now all my tears are dry under a very black sky

Under a black sky
