

They'll Build a Statue of You

Willie Nile

They'll build a statue of you to commend the deeds you've done Face your figure to the west to gaze off in the sunThey'll build a statue of you of your heritage and fame Pay you all their due respects like... "Here's to what's his name"They'll build a statue of you they'll chisel down your nose Plant some trees around you they'll wash you with a hose They'll put you in the finest clothes your worthiness complete Now pigeons can shit in your ears and dogs piss on your feetThe winter winds will whip your back the hail will bite your hand
The April rain will strike your face
I hope you understandThey'll build a statue of you your countenance will shine Fine ladies and fine gentlemen will drink you up like wine I'll bet you think that what you do will make the angels sing But baby I am telling you it doesn't mean a thingThe winter winds will whip your back
the hail will bite your hand
