Constant Heart

Primal Fear

The ground is shaking as they're rolling down the street
And there is fear in people's eyes Organic war machines
The unkind second fleet
Alien brains computerized
Spitting lightnings - pulsing laser Throwing bodies to the wall
Cruel and fighting infantry
Metallic heartbeats - angry roar Constant heart
Constant heart
Prepared for counterstrike we gather in the hell
To map a damning battle plan
Joining the forces with the ones we fought before
The evil menace against man
Blood red eyes - side by side
Avenge our losses - no retreat
There's just one thing in our minds
Victory implicidly
Constant heart
Constant heart
Dead bodies everywhere
We will avenge
We stand together
This army of mankind
Will not surrender
We've saved earth and now we know We're different races but we're one
No religion, and no strong man
Should be a cause to start a war Constant heart
Constant heart
Constant heart
Constant heart
