

These Worries

Kid Cudi

Yeah, the crazy, the wizard
So much whiskey all in my liver
I really like the punch it delivers
Makes me warm while I high-five sinners
All alone tryin' to hide from the shadows
Ain't no use, it seems everywhere they follow
They know I'm where I be at
Affect my mind, tryin' to get me
These worries are heavy
They rest on my shoulders
My pride, it won't let me
Fall victim no more
These worries are heavy
They rest on my shoulders
My pride, it won't let me
Fall victim no more
Well, it's like that
Beat me up and I fight right back
Poof, poof, be gone
I see the devil linger on
Yeah, stuck in my hell
Lie to my mom and I ain't doin' so well
Lord, let me in
I feel like he's my only friend
Yeah, the Rager, the Menace
Hatin' me now then hate me when I'm winnin'
Worked so hard to not go insane
It's a full time job to not lose my faith
Okay, I been here before
Alone for the umpteenth time or more
I'm tired of motherfuckers sayin' that they worry about me
When in fact they probably never gave a fuck about me
These worries are heavy
They rest on my shoulders
My pride, it won't let me
Fall victim no more
These worries are heavy
They rest on my shoulders
My pride, it won't let me
Fall victim no more
Yeah, life is like that
Beat me up and I'll fight right back
Poof, poof, be gone
I see the devil linger on
Yeah, I don't wanna win
As long as long as I can do the work within
Lord, let me in
I feel like you're my only friend
They rest on my shoulders

Fall victim no more These worries are heavy
My pride, it won't let me
Fall victim no more, no more Yeah, the Rager, the Menace
