

A Woman in Love

Peter Rowan

Oh, here I go again
Fallin' in love with you
My heart won't beat slow again
Since I fell in love with youWell, a woman in love, she lets her hair hang down
She stays at home with the lights turned down
She's warm and naive
Her heart is light she's a woman in loveWell, a woman in love, she wants her man to stay
Every thing she has, she'll throw it all away
For that man she loves
She's a woman in loveOh, here I go again
Fallin' in love with you
My heart won't beat slow again
Since I fell in love with youWell, a woman in love is like a moon growin' full
Like a high tide risin', you can feel the pull
Of the heart of the woman
A woman in loveWell, a woman in love is like a garden in June
Like a blossomin' flower breathin' to fume
And I'm really in feelin' her heart beatin' fast
My woman's in loveOh, here I go again
Fallin' in love with you
My heart won't beat slow again
Since I fell in love with youA woman in love
