Run for Your Life

Loudness

Taken in the frozen dawn
No way out, still holding on
Empty hands, full of pain
Reaching for the rainLet me go now
No where to run
Under the gunRun for your life
Run from the fire
Want to survive
Run for your lifeNothing but the night exists
Dark divides the cold, wet mist
Trapped in time with no way out
Can't you hear me shout?Let me go now
Open the cell
I can't take this hellRun for your life
Run from the fire
Want to survive
Run for yourRun for your life
Run from the fire
Want to survive
Run for your lifeWant to survive
Run for your life
