

Some Mothers Do 'ave 'em

Reuben

That's right, that's right,
I got a band and a woman too,
I got a plan and a focussed view,
And that's cool for twenty one, That's cool for twenty one,
That's cool for twenty one,
That's cool for twenty one,
That's cool for anyone, And I've already stayed for too long,
But I will only break your heart when I go,
When I go, when I go, Hold tight, hold tight,
I'm still just a kid with a heavy load,
And rock and roll is a rocky road,
But that's cool for twenty one,
A long list of goals achieved,
And tall tales to tell my son,
And that is cool for twenty one,
Yeah, that's cool for anyone, But I don't drive and I don't pay no board,
And this will only make it hard when I go,
When I go, when I go,
When I go, when I go, Oh... oh,
So I'm staying home, yeah, 'cause to my neighbours,
I'm fucking famous, My mother says she loves me,
She tells me I'm not ugly,
She thinks the whole world of me,
She thinks I'm superman,
My mother doesn't understand why I'm always angry,
I know she don't deserve it,
But she's just first in line, I don't respect myself,
'Cause I can't respect myself,
And I don't respect myself,
'Cause I can't respect myself, And yeah, I heard every word you said, oh...,
And your ideas, they all make sense but I reject them,
Well, how can I hope to earn your respect?, oh...,
When I don't respect myself, I don't respect myself,
When I don't respect myself, I don't respect myself, I don't respect myself,

No

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>