

Lonely Road

Dogwood

I left your arms, no turning back
I chose this lonely, lonely road
I'm on my way, I don't need you
A self-sufficient superstar I'm losing faith, how I miss home
This life is costing me my own
What can I do? Where can I run?
The world against me soon, I'm Down in my heart's where I hide you
Yet where I go is where I find you
I'll never be ashamed of you
I'm sorry I've forsaken you Easy to see
I need your will to carry me
There's not a thing that I can do
Realization I let you Down in my heart's where I hide you
Yet where I go is where I find you
I'll never be ashamed of you
I'm sorry I've forsaken you I'm in your arms, came running back
I left the lonely, lonely road
Whoa, oh oh, ho, oh, ho
